

ST. LUKE'S

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (USA)

Scottish Heritage Sunday Kirkin' of the Tartans Service 11 a.m. ~ January 29, 2012

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Liturgical Color: Green

A Church of the Word and Sacraments

Our Mission

Responding to God's call and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we invite all to join us in knowing, serving, and sharing Jesus Christ here and around the world.

Our Vision

To be a beacon of faith, hope, and love ~ every member an active disciple in Christ's ministry.

We Assemble in God's Name

In Preparation for Worship

On August 17, 1560, reformer John Knox and five of his colleagues presented the first Reformed Confession of Faith written in the English language to the Parliament of Scotland. "The Scots Confession," as it is now known, united all of Scotland in its politics and in the church. From that day on, the nation was united under a Protestant Flag, emblazoned with the Cross of St. Andrew. It was the birth of the Church of Scotland, and Presbyterianism became a new denomination of Christians. Today, St. Luke's Presbyterian Church celebrates its heritage in descent from the Church of Scotland. It is from an unadorned Calvinist faith of Word and Sacrament, preached passionately in Scotland by the great reformer John Knox during the sixteenth century that St. Luke's continues to draw its life and mission. With voices singing, drums beating and bagpipes playing, let us celebrate our Scottish heritage in this service for the worship of God.

Choral Introit

For the Beauty of the Earth
Westminster Choir, Jill Hudson - piano

arr. Jeff Reeves

For the beauty of the earth for the glory of the skies, for the love which from our birth over and around us lies: Lord of all, to Thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise. For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night, Hill and vale and tree and flow'r, sun and moon and stars of light. For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child. Friends on earth and friends above for all gentle thoughts and mild. (Folliott S. Pierpont)

Gathering Prayer of Adoration (in unison)

Shannon Dill

Most gracious God, our Heavenly Father, in Whom alone dwelleth all fullness of light and wisdom: illuminate our minds, we beseech Thee, by Thine Holy Spirit, in the true understanding of Thy word. Give us grace that we may receive it with reverence and humility unfeigned. May it lead us to put our whole trust in Thee alone. Amen.

*Prayer of Confession (in unison)

For by nature we are so dead, blind, and perverse, that neither can we feel when we are tempted, see the light when it shines, nor assent to the will of God when it is revealed, unless the Spirit of the Lord Jesus removes the darkness from our minds. For by ourselves we are not capable of thinking one good thought, but He Who has begun the work in us alone continues us in it, to the praise and glory of His undeserved grace. Amen. (from the Scots Confession)

*Assurance of Forgiveness

Our faith and its assurance are the inspiration of the Holy Ghost. We confess that the Holy Ghost does sanctify and regenerate us, without respect to any merit proceeding from us. He Who has begun the work in us alone continues us in it, to the praise and Glory of His undeserved Grace. (from the Scots Confession)

†*Gloria Patri #578

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen. (Old Scottish Chant)

Anthem

Spirit of God, Unseen As the Wind - Skye Boat Song

arr. David Lliff

Chancel Choir

Spirit of God, unseen as the wind, gentle as is the dove; Teach us the truth and help us believe, show us the Savior's love! You spoke to us long, long ago; gave us the written word. We read it still, needing its truth, through it God's voice is heard. Without Your help we fail our Lord, we cannot live His way; We need Your power, we need Your strength, following Christ each day. Sermon

"Building on the Foundation"

Jason Whitener

*Affirmation of Faith (in unison)

We confess and acknowledge one God alone, to Whom we must cleave, Whom alone we must serve, Whom only we must worship, and in Whom alone we put our trust. Who is eternal, infinite, immeasurable, incomprehensible, omnipotent, invisible; one in substance and yet distinct in three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. We most surely believe that God preserved, instructed, multiplied, honored, adorned, and called from death to life His Kirk in all ages since Adam until the coming of Christ Jesus in the flesh. Amen.

Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Service Notes

Today is a time to recognize those leaders and martyrs of the church, and members of the armed forces, who have enabled us to worship in modern times in freedom, as well as to enjoy each other and our guests in fellowship. A warm welcome is extended to our visitors and thanks to those from St. Luke's and those outside our congregation who have come to assist and make this a special service of worship. Those in key roles today are: Alan Miller, Beadle, born in Paisley, Scotland, St. Luke's member and member of the St. Andrew's Society; Yvonne Miller, born in Oban, Scotland, member of St. Luke's and the St. Andrew's Society, gifted musically, playing the recorder; Donald Malcolm, St. Luke's member, member of the St. Andrew's Society and former National President of the Clan MacCallum-Malcolm Society of North America; Rosina Grey, born in Springburn, Scotland, is President of the St. Andrew's Society of Atlanta and a Board Member of the Stone Mountain Highland Games; Greg Slaton is Vice President of the St. Andrew's Society of Atlanta, a member of Clan Hunter, and a Board member of the Burns Club of Atlanta.

The History

The ceremony of Kirkin' o' the Tartans is of American origin, though based on Scottish history and legend. Scotland came under British rule following the Battle of Culloden in 1746. The Scots were not allowed to wear their tartans, which represented Scottish heritage, for 50 years. The stubborn Scots would secretly carry a piece of their tartan to the Kirk where the minister would slip in a blessing (a Kirkin'). The first Kirkin' in the United States was held in 1943 at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church by the late Dr. Peter Marshall, an eloquent Scot and minister there. He was also Chaplain of the U.S. Senate.

Blessing of the Tartans

The worship service is very traditional and much of the content is based on the Church of Scotland. Central to its theme is the presentation of various tartans - through flags and the wearing of tartans - for a blessing. Clans were simply a gathering of peoples for their protection and for economic, political, and social support. Clansmen demonstrated a true brotherhood of man, the tartan is a symbol of this love and togetherness. The Kirkin' is intended to encourage all participants to reflect with thanksgiving on their own family and ethnic heritage, and to celebrate God's grace poured out for all generations.

The Beadle

A kilted Beadle leads the worship procession carrying the Bible to the front of the sanctuary and pulpit. Reminiscent of an old custom of the Church of Scotland, this tradition highlights the Bible as the Word of our Lord and the center of our faith.

The Evolution of the Kilt

No doubt the most identifiable garment worn by the Scots is the kilt, regardless of the fabric. The kilt of modern times is made with eight yards of tartan, pleated together in the back, left unpleated in the front, and designed like a wrap-around apron. Laid out flat it would have pleats in the middle, with two unpleated, flat sections on either side. In examining its history, it also helps to remember that the modern kilt is made to cover only the lower half of the body, from the waist down to the knees. In the late 1500's, the Feileadh Mhor, or the Great Kilt, as we saw on William Wallace in Braveheart, was made to cover most of the body, from the knees to the neck, and sometimes even the head. It was made using twice the width of cloth as a modern kilt. One laid out the yardage of the very wide cloth on the ground and proceeded to pleat the center of the fabric, leaving the two flat sections on either side. It would look much the same as the modern kilt when spread out, but with the two flat side sections being twice as long.

Disciple Short Courses

Disciple Bible Study: Is one of your New Year's Resolutions to do more Bible study? Are you looking at a good way to get started with friends from St. Luke's? Then there are two new opportunities for you beginning early 2012! For more information, contact Shannon Dill, shannondill@slpres.org or Bill Barbin, wjbpsu70@comcast.net.

Invitation to the Old Testament: What does it mean to be God's chosen people? And how does the story of Israel's covenant with God inform our own identity as heirs of that covenant? Through this study, participants will be invited to listen afresh to the witness of the Old Testament to hear God's call and purpose for their own lives and respond to that call. Facilitated by Paula Barbin, they meet on Thursday evenings, 7 p.m., January 19 ~ March 15.

The Old Testament Unwrapped: This course looks at especially prominent passages from a cross-section of the Old Testament, using each passage and representative figures or episodes as a highway into biblical meaning. Whether it's the story of Adam and Eve, David and Bathsheba, or the apocalyptic imagery found in the book of Daniel, biblical characters and passages come to life and vividly reveal the magnificent artistry that suffuses the Old Testament. We will explore the content of the biblical books, and also explore debates over their meaning, the historical and cultural situations they reflect and address, and the critical methods by which they have been interpreted. Facilitated by Shannon Dill and Janey Hoag, and will meet on Thursday mornings, 9:30-11 a.m., February 2 ~ March 29.

"Give us this day our daily bread"

Another successful PW sandwich project! Thanks to everyone who donated their time making bologna and cheese sandwiches for the Atlanta Community Food Bank so that 12,000 people could have a meal. Enthusiasm abounded! Each year it is a delight to see all ages working so hard together. Thanks especially to those who came early and stayed to the end! The bread, 875 loaves, was donated by Bimbo Bakeries. PW purchased the bologna and cheese and is still seeking donations to help cover the cost. Donations can be placed in the collection plates but please mark "PW Sandwich".
